

MBM #1 Bladder

Mind, Body, Meridian Emotional Remedy – #01 BLADDER Meridian/Irritated is a proprietary homeopathic formula designed to balance the bladder meridian and address associated emotions. It is part of a comprehensive system that considers the meridian system, emotions, and overall health. This remedy is intended to support the body's natural healing processes by harmonizing the bladder meridian and promoting emotional balance.

Helps calm burning, urgency, and reactive bladder discomfort

- Apis Mellifica is traditionally used in homeopathy to address sensations of heat, swelling, and sharp irritation, helping soothe an overreactive bladder pathway.

Supports relief from hypersensitivity and internal overstimulation

- Hepar Sulphuris Calcareaum is associated with calming heightened sensitivity, especially when the system reacts strongly to minor triggers.

Encourages strength and tone in weakened elimination pathways

- Baryta Carbonica is traditionally linked to supporting sluggish or underperforming systems, helping restore stability and energetic tone.

Helps release suppressed emotional tension stored in the bladder meridian

- Staphysagria is commonly associated with unexpressed emotions such as frustration or resentment, supporting emotional release that may ease physical tension.

Promotes deep energetic detoxification and clearing of stagnation

- Thuja is traditionally used to support the release of accumulated energetic waste, helping the body let go of what no longer serves it.

Supports emotional regulation during stress or hormonal shifts

- Pulsatilla is associated with balancing emotional variability, encouraging adaptability, and gentle regulation.

Helps ease stiffness and discomfort linked to fluid imbalance along the meridian

- Bryonia Alba is traditionally used when discomfort worsens with movement, supporting fluid regulation and meridian comfort.

Encourages natural drainage and healthy flow through the urinary pathway

- Berberis Vulgaris supports drainage processes traditionally associated with easing radiating discomfort and promoting smooth energetic flow.

Helps the body respond more calmly to stress-related triggers

- Ingredients traditionally associated with reducing overreaction support a more balanced stress response.

Supports emotional processing and release

- Addresses emotional patterns often linked to the bladder meridian, including fear, pressure, and stored tension.

Ingredients:

Apis Mellifica, Hepar Sulphuris Calcareaum, Baryta Carbonica, Staphysagria, Thuja, Pulsatilla, Bryonia Alba, and Berberis Vulgaris (drainage).

Indications:

A detailed Hormone Saliva Test can provide insights into meridian health related to cortisol levels. For children, the dosage and repetitions should be halved. Repetitions can be reduced as this formula is potent and effective. Multiple Mind, Body, Meridian (MBM) remedies can be given each week, but compatibility should be tested. It is advised to eliminate caffeine. Testing the patient every three weeks can reveal changes in the remedy, potency, and frequency of treatment.

Recommended Dosage

5 drops once per day, 2 to 4 days per week or as indicated by testing or the label.

Recommendations

It is recommended to consult with a healthcare professional or the Wellness Center for instructions on homeopuncture if practicing acupuncture. This remedy includes drainage properties and aims to balance the meridians and associated emotions. Regular muscle testing on the client and adjustments may be necessary to optimize treatment. Please note that individual results may vary, and the information provided is not intended to replace professional medical advice or treatment.
