

Nano Ionic Multi w/Silica

Dr. Dale's Nano Ionic Multi with Silica is a highly bioavailable liquid mineral complex designed to deliver essential minerals in their most absorbable form. Processed through a proprietary nano-ionic method, each mineral is broken down into ultra-small particles that the body can readily recognize and utilize at the cellular level.

This comprehensive blend provides foundational mineral support without fillers, binders, preservatives, or chemicals—just pure, potent minerals essential for optimal health.

Superior Absorption for Maximum Effectiveness

- The nano-ionic format allows for rapid uptake, helping replenish mineral levels more efficiently than traditional capsules or tablets.

Supports Cellular Energy & Enzyme Activation

- Minerals act as catalysts for thousands of enzymatic processes. This formula helps optimize metabolic function, energy production, and biochemical balance.

Promotes Strong Bones, Hair, Skin & Nails

- Silica, Calcium, Magnesium, and Zinc support structural integrity, collagen formation, and connective tissue health.

Enhances Cognitive, Thyroid & Hormonal Function

- Iodine, Selenium, Iron, and Copper help maintain healthy hormone signaling, thyroid activity, oxygen transport, and nerve function.

Boosts Immune Function & Antioxidant Defense

- Zinc, Selenium, and Manganese contribute to immune resilience and help protect cells from oxidative damage.

Helps Maintain Electrolyte Balance & Hydration

- Magnesium, Potassium, and Sulfur assist in fluid balance, nerve conduction, and muscle function.

Supports Healthy Detoxification Pathways

- Minerals like Sulphur and Magnesium aid natural detox processes, helping the body eliminate metabolic waste more efficiently.

Supports Cardiovascular Health

- Potassium, Magnesium, and Calcium contribute to healthy blood pressure, muscle contractions, and heart rhythm.

Encourages Healthy Nerve Function & Mood Balance

- Magnesium, Iron, Copper, and Zinc assist in neurotransmitter synthesis and healthy nervous system communication.

Ideal for Individuals with Poor Absorption or Digestion

- The ionic liquid format bypasses common digestive barriers, making it suitable for people with low stomach acid or malabsorption.

Provides Broad-Spectrum Daily Mineral Insurance

- A complete trace mineral blend helps fill nutritional gaps caused by modern diets, soil depletion, and processed foods.

Helps Maintain Healthy Blood Sugar Metabolism

- Chromium and Magnesium contribute to normal insulin activity and glucose balance.
