

Raw Nattokinase

Raw Nattokinase is formulated to support cardiovascular wellness, healthy blood circulation and may prevent and/or break down clots through its action on breaking down fibrin, the protein mesh that forms the structure of blood clots. Each serving provides 20,000 FU's of Nattokinase, ensuring maximum efficacy and bioavailability. Ideal for individuals looking to maintain healthy blood flow and enzyme levels.

Supports Circulatory Flow

- Helps maintain smooth, efficient blood movement throughout the body, supporting overall circulatory wellness.

Enhances Cardiovascular Function

- Contributes to healthy vascular tone and flexibility, promoting optimal arterial performance.

Supports Heart & Blood Dynamics

- Helps sustain balanced circulation and nutrient delivery to tissues.

Promotes Natural Detox Pathways

- Assists in supporting normal blood viscosity and fluid balance, contributing to healthy internal cleansing processes.

Boosts Energy & Vitality

- By supporting smooth circulation, it aids in efficient oxygen and nutrient delivery to muscles and organs, enhancing energy levels.

Supports Cellular Health

- Contributes to optimal microcirculation, which supports cellular performance and resilience.

Promotes a Balanced Internal Environment

- Helps maintain natural fluid balance and circulatory rhythm for overall wellness.

Breaks down fibrin

- Fibrin is the protein "mesh" that forms the structure of blood clots. Nattokinase directly degrades fibrin, which may help to dissolve existing clots.

Supports fibrinolysis

- Supports the body's natural clot-dissolving process by increasing plasmin activity.

Improves circulation

- By reducing excess clotting and promoting smoother blood flow.
